WYBC-FM PROGRAM GUIDE, DECEMBER 1962

PLEASE NOTE: Due to the relatively short month of broadcasting that December will entail for this station, it was felt that the printing of a full program guide was not warranted. Thus, this is merely an addendum to the list of regularly scheduled programs to be found in the program guides of previous months. Listed below is classical music programming and events of special interest.

Sunday, December 2

1:05 P.M. Opera. Moussorgsky: Boris Godounov. The Belgrade Opera.

3:30 P.M. Grand Concert. In honor of the coming Christmas season, Berlioz's great oratorio, L'Enfance du Christ.

Monday, December 3

7:15 P.M. The Beginnings of Music. A liberal sampling of early music available on New Haven's own record label, OVERTONE.

Tuesday, December 4

7:00 P.M. Epic Record Concert. Vivaldi: Il Cimento dell'Armonia e dell'Invenzione, complete. Dvorak: Slavonic Rhapsody No. 1. Beethoven: Sonata No. 7 for violin and piano.

Wednesday, December 5

7:15 P.M. The New Century. Portions of a lecture by Mel Powell on electronic music; the latest word on what is occurring in contemporary music circles, liberally sprinkled with musical illustrations.

Thursday, December 6

8:00 P.M. Citizen's Council Forum: an example of Southern propaganda. Tonight: the University of Mississippi Crisis, an interesting view by the Citizen's Council of Jackson, Miss., whose motto is: "State's Rights-- Racial Integrity".

Friday, December 7

7:00 P.M. Musicians Offstage. An interview with Leopold Stokowski.

7:15 P.M. Everest Record Hour. Respighi: Feste Romane. Rachmaninoff: Symphonic Dances.

Sunday, December 9

1:05 P.M. Opera. Leoncavallo: Pagliacci; and in honor of the Christmas season, Menotti: Amahl and the Night Visitors, original cast.

3:00 P.M. Grand Concert. Bach: The Christmas Oratorio.

Monday, December 10

7:15 P.M. The Beginnings of Music. A fiesta of early music for the guitar and lute, including works by Vivaldi, Bach and Dowland.

Tuesday, December 11

7:00 P.M. Epic Record Concert. Beethoven: Symphony No. 1. Mendelsohn: Violin Concerto. Berlioz: Symphonie Fantastique. Mozart: Andante in C major for flute and string orchestra.

Wednesday, December 12

7:15 P.M. The New Century presents a Christmas program. Britten: A Ceremony of Carols. Distler: The Christmas Story. Honegger: Christmas Cantata. Nelson: The Christmas Story.

Thursday, December 13

8:00 P.M. Citizen's Council Forum. The second of a two-part series devoted to the Citizen's Council of Jackson, Mississippi. Tonight: an interview with Carleton Putnam, Northener, author of "Race and Reason", and white supremacist.

II

Friday, December 14

7:00 P.M. Everest Record Hour. Mahler: Symphony No. 1. Moussorgsky: Pictures at an Exhibition. Prokofieff: Chout ("The Buffoon").

Sunday, December 16-- an entire afternoon of Handel

1:05 P.M. Opera. Handel: Acis and Galatea, with Joan Sutherland.

2:30 P.M. Grand Concert. Handel: The Messiah, conducted by Scherchen. ALSO: "A Christmas Offering" by Leontyne Price and von Karaja...

Monday, December 17

7:15 P.M. The Beginnings of Music presents a festival of early Christmas music. Alfred Deller sings ancient Christmas carols. Corelli: Christmas Concerto. Gregorian Chants from the Christmas Cycle. Haydn: Toy Symphony. Others.

Monday, December 17 is the last day of broadcasting by this station for this month and year. WYBC-FM extends to all a wish for a month of good listening, a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR.

THE YALE BROADCASTING COMPANY, INC.
242-A Yale Station
New Haven, Connecticut
Phone UN 5-6400

Non-Profit Org.
U.S. POSTAGE
New Haven, Conn.
Permit No. 327

This page is on the reverse side of I.